FORMER STILESVILLE STAR TO APPEAR WITH TIGER CUBS.

PERFORMS AT PIVOT JOB

Greencastle Net Team To Entertain Clinton This Evening. Curtain Raiser Is Also Scheduled.

Edwin Johnson, former Stilesville center and picked as all-sectional pivot man in the Danville tourney last season, will make his first appearance in a Greencastle high school basketball suit this evening when the Tiger Cubs meet the scrappy Clinton quintet on the local floor. Johnson, who is about the size of Melvin Reeves, stellar back guard on the Purple and Grey squad and perhaps a trifle taller, should add much to the offensive and defensive attack of the local aggregation. He handles the ball well and is a good shot at the basket. He also comes back quick on defense which will be of great help to the Tiger Cub guards, Miller and Reeves.

It is understood that Johnson would have been eligible to play at the start of the 1926-27 season if his parents had moved here when school opened. However, they could not see their way clear until the Christmas holidays as they have been residing on a farm east of the city, but Friday Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were in Greencastle and secured a house and are now making this city their home.

The Clinton-G. H. S. contest will start promptly at 8 o'clock tonight with a curtain raiser between the Junior Cubs and the Plainfield Juniors being called at 7 p. m.

In the first net battle tonight, Coach Cleon Davies will probably start the following lineup against the Hendricks county invaders: Stone and Masten, forwards; Grimes, center; Evan Crawley and Eugene Crawley, guards. The Davies coached quintet handed the visitors a beating at Plainfield several weeks ago and the boys are coming here determined to even the standing between the two teams.

Coach W. E. Bausman's starting lineup for the Clinton encounter will be: Hammond and Masten, forwards; Johnson, center; Miller and Reeves, guards.

Witnesses Probed In Election Case

COURT ROOM CROWDED AS PAYNE ROCKHILL HEARING CONTINUES.

A large crowd was on hand all day Saturday for the Carey F. Payne versus Lawrence Rockhill case, which started Thursday morning in the Putnam Circuit court before Judge Jere West of the Montgomery Circuit court.

There were a large number of witnesses heard during the week and on motion of the contestor, the witnesses were separated and were not allowed to hear the testimony of the other witnesses. Several witnesses were examined Saturday.

The election returns as reported by the election boards gave Lawrence Rockhill a majority of four votes, C. F. Payne, the Democratic candidate filed a petition for a recount. A commission was named and it gave Mr. Rockhill a majority of two votes.

During the morning session the votes of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weese of Madison township were questioned by Otis E. Gulley, attorney for Mr. Rockhill. It is said that these two votes were illegally cast in the election for Mr. Payne. During the examination C. C. Gillen, attorney for Mr. Payne, objected to many of the questions put to the witnesses and Mrs. Weese was visibly nervous and excited under the strain of being on the witness stand.

The attorneys were questioning the witnesses in regards to the ballots and in what way they marked them. The witnesses were also questioned in regards to their place of residence, where they lived at the time of the election and put other queries relative to proving some of the ballots illegally cast.

Claud Humphrey was among the afternoon witnesses. He and his wife voted by absent voters ballot in the election, but they were not counted by the election board, because it was said they were not legal voters of the precinct at the time of the election. The ballots, however, were counted by the re-count commission, and W. L. Denman was recalled relative to them being counted. The ballots were somewhat mixed up, it was said and a search for the two was being made at press time.

It was said by those who followed the case that Mr. Payne was probably losing ground by the evidence introduced, as it was indicated that more alleged illegal votes were cast for Payne than for Rockhill.

Judge West said he would remain here today until the case was finished.

EFFICIENCY STRESSED BY MUSSOLINI

UNIT OF POLICY IS KEY-NOTE OF ANY GOOD GOVERNMENT.

LAUDS U. S. ORGANIZATION

Italian Premier Believes Eliminating Unnecessary Expense in Government. Likes Manager Plan.

(This is the fourth of a series of articles on his daily life work by Benito Mussolini, as told to Thomas B. Morgan, Rome manager of the United Press. Each article in this series has been personally revised, corrected and approved by Premier Mussolini.)

(Copyright 1927 by United Press Association.)

Government, to be good, must be efficient. It must achieve the greatest net result with the minimum of lost effort. If there be wastage of labor, duplication, overlapping or lack of coordination then there are serious defects in the government machinery. There must be unity of policy, unity of responsibility and unity of direction. Without these, government becomes a ship-said, haphazard hit-or-miss business, able to continue only because it can demand tribute from the entire nation.

A private business must be efficient or die. It has no reserve on which to call unless it has created that reserve itself. It must sustain itself by its own merits. Its manager must avoid wastage, duplication, overlapping and must coordinate all the parts of his organization in a smooth running machine. He is responsible and held to strict account for its success. He directs it with a single aim and single policy, his policy.

The United States presents to the world many examples of gigantic successful business organizations, which to arrive at their great achievements must have been governed by these principles. There was one direction, policy and responsibility centered in one man, on whom the whole operation of the immense organization depended. The giant steel, oil, copper, transportation and other industries were developed under these genius, who in their way, were veritable dictators, whose words were law throughout their respective realms. They created smooth-running organizations of human units finally reaching a degree of efficiency which has been the marvel of the world.

Lauds City Manager Plan

American municipalities are recognizing the need of centralization of the administrative powers and of the fixing of responsibility in their adoption of the "city manager" plan. It would seem that they are discrediting the worn-out system of political affiliations and of shirking of responsibility and substituting it by the appointment of a capable, expert and responsible officer. Thus, many of them had even adopted the idea of "podesta" that is, the institution of a responsible municipal officer managing the community, long before Fascism installed it for the administration of our towns and cities. It is the only logical and practical way of securing efficiency, insuring rapid decision and action and of laying one's finger upon the particular man, guilty of neglecting or deserving of praise for promoting those things deemed essential for the welfare and progress of the municipality.

It is just such business efficiency on a larger scale, we have tried to work into the government machine of Italy. We are succeeding. We have practically rebuilt the old machine, substituting a part here and there and renewing it. It has been completely over hauled and speeded up and has already shown its productive power. Conceived on the same lines as the successful business organizations, it centers responsibility and unifies control, culminating in one man at the head charged with its direction.

Heads Seven Departments

Promptly at nine o'clock each week day, I am at my desk in the Palazzo, the seat of the Ministry of the Interior, to direct this huge machine. I have under my immediate supervision the administration of seven ministries, the presidency, interior, foreign affairs, war, navy, air and "corporazioni," the latter being an entirely fascist creation designed especially to deal with the relations between capital and labor. I also supervise the command of the fascist militia, of which I am commander-in-chief. The work of these ministries is so coordinated that the business to be transacted is done with the dispatch of a highly efficient private enterprise. Every day for five hours, until two o'clock, the entire government business of these departments, except the ministry of foreign affairs is directed and supervised with business thoroughness and rigidity.

At two, I take a light lunch and am then at my desk at the Chigi Palace, the seat of the ministry of Foreign Affairs, where I remain until ten in the evening on the constant go save for taking a glass of milk at my desk at six. The work is that of directing Italian foreign relations, of examining ambassadors and ministers, and holding numerous imperative conferences and audiences.

When the chamber of deputies and senate are in session, my attendance at one or the other is dovetailed into the schedule. Cabinet meetings too must find a place in the day's limited hours. I attend the chamber and senate ready to take up questions which might be introduced on the conduct of the government and to keep the deputies and senators informed on the policy of the administration.

My colleagues in the cabinet and the under-secretaries of state know that the government business must be handled with enthusiasm and promptitude. Our work must be intensive and productive. They know my requirements in this regard. They know that they cannot approach me unless their mission is one of government business. There is no si meto joke. Everything must be to the point and must be worth discussing. Each usually has his business.

I am fortunately blessed with a faculty for quick decision which permits me to accomplish an immense amount of work. I cannot stand vacillating and procrastinating executive. Ministers of a professional type are useless as administrators. They take so much time for decision that the whole business of their department is delayed. This cannot be tolerated in any branch of my government. Ministers, before we came into power, deliberated and vacillated for years before putting into operation. We have created an aptitude for quick decision in our public affairs which coupled with our intensive effort has achieved things not dreamed of before our advent to power.

Well-defined and when he sees me, need stay but a few minutes. They have acquired skill in condensation which enables me to go quickly to the matter in hand and to settle it.

We have settled our debts with England and America, stiffened Italian Finance, strengthened the lira and now have consolidated the public debt by launching of the Littoral loan. For our sea commerce, we built the "Roma," the biggest ship in the Mediterranean service and will build two new liners, "Rex" and "Dux," the fastest in the world, forty knots an hour, taking only four to five days from Italy to New York and seven to Buenos Aires.

Fascism's Achievements

Fascism constructed in two years the Rome-Ostia electric line, a project planned for twenty years, designed to give the people of Rome access to their own seashore. Fascism constructed the Apulia aqueduct to supply forty communities with an aggregate population of 3,000,000 with water; is building the longest tunnel in the world between Florence and Bologna, fifteen miles long, is completing the Rome to Naples direct line to reduce the running time by one half and undertaking numerous projects to be brought to successful consummation under fascist initiative and drive.

I came into office a young man, thirty-nine, the youngest premier Italy ever had. I arrived with the force of youth. It was natural for me to be able to undertake greater burdens than the ministers of the old regimes. They could not stand the intense physical strain—they were sixty, seventy and sometimes eighty years of age. The combined ages of the men in my cabinet total slightly over two hundred, while in one of the cabinets of Signor Giolitti the total years of the ministers reached eleven hundred.

American presidents, alas, suffer greatly from the strain of office. Roosevelt, however, during his incumbency stood it well and came out of office a very strong man, for he was young. He was, too, a believer in a disciplined life and so am I. He was a wielder of the "big stick," which is a fascist trait. He also was a man of quick decision and rapid execution. He was an untiring worker, too—a great administrator. He was truly one of those who stood out in bold relief in his generation and cast his influence upon the entire world.

My collaborators are all young men. I have three under-secretaries of state, who have hardly passed thirty. There is a great advantage

JURORS FAIL TO AGREE IN BOOZE TRIAL

ROBERT HOWARD IN CIRCUIT COURT ON LIQUOR POSSESSION CHARGE.

VOTE STOOD 8-4, REPORT

Case Went to Jury at 2:30 P. M. And Was Dismissed by Judge Hughes Late Friday.

Failing to agree over the evidence presented in the trial of Robert Howard charged with possession of liquor, a hung jury resulted in the case which was heard Friday in the Putnam circuit court before Judge J. P. Hughes. It is said the vote stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal. The case went to the jury at 2:30 p. m., and upon failure to reach a verdict, the jurors were dismissed by the court late in the afternoon.

Howard was arrested during the Christmas holidays and when arraigned before Mayor Charles McGaughey entered a plea of not guilty. After trial in the city court which resulted in a hung jury also, the case was then taken to the circuit court.

Policeman Paul Grimes, who made the arrest, was the only witness for the state, while Theodore Crawley, attorney for the defense had several witnesses on the stand during the day after the jury had been secured.

Reelsville Is Blanked, 12 To 0

ASHBORO QUINTET HOLDS SOUTHWEST PUTNAM TEAM SCORELESS.

In a game featured by the impenetrable defense of the Ashboro high school team, Reelsville's valiant quintet went down to defeat 12 to 0 on Friday evening. The score at the half was 6 to 0.

The Reelsville boys fumbled the ball when they gained possession of the leather sphere and simply could not locate the basket. Although they could not score, the Putnam county team held Ashboro to a very small total of points during the regulation playing time.

Wingate Bows To Roachdale, 21-8

NORTH PUTNAM QUINTET WINS CLOSE GAME ON FRIDAY EVENING.

By remaining cool under fire and playing a consistent game, Friday night, the Roachdale high school netters broke into the winning column by noosing out the fighting Wingate quintet, 21 to 18 on the Roachdale floor. The score at the half was 8-7 in favor of the ultimate winners and there was scarcely a time during the entire forty minutes of play that more than 3 points separated the two teams.

Wingate bitterly contested every point and the fans were kept on their toes from the first to the final whistle. Lane performed best for Roachdale while Bowman was Wingate's star.

The body was waiting for the Columbus party at Rector's Funeral parlors, but Mr. Frozier had a hard time in getting to Greencastle. At Columbus, he was told he would see the Rector establishment on the National road and for him to keep on driving until he saw it. Frozier said he passed Putnamville going west, and thinking he was lost, stopped at a farm home and asked where Putnamville was. He was told it was

He continued to Manhattan or to Pleasant Gardens, he did not know which. Then he found he would have to come to Greencastle, and he was started back in this direction. He was told to keep on driving, but went to the State Farm and then turned north. He was told to take the first turn to the left and he did so, but ended in a farm yard. He got started again and was told to drive to the lights which he could see. The Cement Company plant lights caught his eyes and ended in the yard at the cement plant. There he told the men he was lost and asked to be directed to Greencastle. He was started once more and reached here about eight o'clock, after driving a considerable distance farther than was necessary.

At The Movies

Opera House

A breezy farce, "Stop Flirting," is the attraction at the Opera House this evening and it is a picture that is guaranteed to make you forget all your troubles and laugh until your sides ache. The action of the film is taken at a house party and how a young man hoping to make his fiancée desire to marry him immediately, plans to disappear for a short time and then as suddenly re-appear. He believes she will realize how much she cares for him if he does this and that the minister will do the rest. However, the girl gets wise to the scheme and begins flirting with a group of young men at the house party, which creates a number of extremely funny situations. John T. Murray, Wanda Hawley, Hallam Cooley and Ethel Shannon are the featured players.

VONCASTLE

"The Kick-Off" is featured in the new bill at the Voncastle Theatre. You will know from its title what kind of a picture it is, but you cannot estimate its thrills without seeing it.

This is not the first football picture, nor yet the last, but for pure, sustained interest, capped by a star's spirit of tremendously courageous success, it is incomparable.

George Walsh is the star who brings to this fictional photoplay all the realism of the college gridiron. He is the very picture of the undergraduate hero. As a football star, he recreates all the emotions that mark an Autumnal holiday in sport: the courage and fear, the cheering and wailing, the hopes held high and dashed down; all the play of the various phases of human nature that mix so riotously among the thousands who gather in the great college bowls to watch their favorite and enemies clash.

"The Kick-Off" is decidedly well worth seeing.

Coach Pete Vaughn's Scarlet quintet at Wabash College took all the wind out of the sails of the North Manchester championship basketball craft at Crawfordsville, last night by the score of 35 to 25. "Red" Robinson led the Little Giants to victory over the up-state basketweavers. This leaves Notre Dame and Indiana the only undefeated college teams in the state at present.

Logansport is going good. Logansport, 61; Kokomo, 31. Watch out for the Loganberries at the state tourney. Rushville keeps the Consolation Brick and Blooming on the Victory Brick.

Due to the fact that Washington high school plays the Tiger Cubs in a return game here on January 21, a number of local fans asked us today just why the Hatchets were defeated at Mitchell on Friday evening by the score of 30 to 19. Well, as we didn't see the game of course we couldn't tell them the exact cause, but we suggested that it might have been the small playing floor at Mitchell and maybe the Hatchets had an "off night." We don't believe, judging by the present season scores, that Mitchell is 11 points better than Burlington's net squad but you know basketball is basketball and playing floors are playing floors. Greencastle fans are interested in the Hatchets this winter and some of them have placed this aggregation near the front in mythical Big Ten selections mailed to us. 1926 Grid Men

Gold footballs were presented to the members of the 1926 football team by John Puckett, president of the student body, on behalf of the student body at Chapel today. The players receiving the awards were Captain-elect Anderson, ex-Captain Taylor, Sturridge, Messersmith, Scott, Bray, Howell, Reid Shoup, Marshall, Firebaugh, Brandenburg, Cushman, Lovelace, Huffman, Smith, Fisher, and Gunn.

Dr. Henry B. Longden, vice-president of the University, followed with a talk on our approaching exams, expressing his firm belief in examinations given to secure jobs, to test intelligence, and to test knowledge.

Dr. Longden expressed a desire that we might take our examinations with a will to conquer and enthusiasm for the struggle, such as the attitude we take on entering a football game.

He encouraged the best use of the next three weeks before examinations and expressed his confidence in the ability of the students. In closing, he reminded us of our holiday joys and good wishes, and a hearty wish to all the students for a "happy and successful examination time," suggesting that each student must be his own Santa Claus.

SUPER-SHELL GASOLINE

IS NOW ON THE MARKET

New Motor Fuel Combines Quick
Starting and Anti-Knock Qualities.
Available in This Community.

The Ioxana Petroleum Corporation announces the perfection of a new and improved gasoline which it is claimed does three things which motorists demand—stops engine knocks, starts quickly in cold weather and gives increasing power to the car.

This new product, Super-Shell, is refined by a new process from specially selected naphthene-base crudes containing elements that give it its peculiar properties. It is a natural product, free from all added chemicals or other foreign ingredients and is perfectly safe for anyone to use.

It is claimed that Super-Shell is different from other gasoline as it not only has the property of stopping motor knocks but at the same time assures instant starting, accelerates quickly, burns clearly and gives noticeable increased power the full length of every piston stroke.

It is announced that Super-Shell is offered at only a slight advance over the regular price and can be had at Shell Service Stations and at the stations of nearly all Shell dealers.

BIBLE STORY

A Pilgrim Nation.

Striking camp, they journeyed from Marah one short stage, and then, winding down a narrow valley among low hills, they came into the valley of Elim. Here was a sight to gladden eyes weary of desert sands and cloudless glare of sunshine. Palm trees waved their feathery crests in the air and cast a refreshing shade, tamarisks grew very thickly, and everywhere was green foliage and bloom and scent. Down the midst of the valley bubbled a well-springs. So, in the coolness of this happy valley, the wanderers rested and were glad.

Then came a stage that brought back the memories of the past, for their journey brought them down from the fair vale of Elim to the sea.
There beyond the tossing blue waters lay the long range of hills that borders Egypt on the east. Black and grim their crests stood out against the red, westering sun. So the people looked their last upon the House of Bondage, and remembered their affliction only as waters that pass away.

But now for a season their way led through the barren wilderness of Sin.
Naught grew there to feed the way-farers, and the food they bore with them was soon done. Then fierce murmurings broke out against the leaders, "Would that God had slain us in the land of Egypt, where,
slaves or no, we had plenty to eat.
Ye have brought us out into this waste to kill a whole nation with hunger." Then Moses spoke sharply to the people (for he was grieved at their senseless ingratitude), and sent Aaron to bid them draw near before the Lord. And when the people looked towards the wilderness, lo! the light of God shone in the pillar of the cloud, and they knew that Jehovah was there. And the Lord gave His word to Moses "This evening ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall have bread to the full; so shall ye know that I am God."

Council Votes Adoption Of An Activity Fee

"COMMUNITY CHEST" IDEA AIMED TO CUT COST OF CAMPUS ACTIVITIES.

A plan, passed unanimously by the Student Council, providing for an activity fee to support various campus organizations, will be presented to the faculty this week for approval.

This plan provides for a general levy on the student body to cost each student approximately $6 a year. This will provide $9,500, the amount set by the Student Council after considering the budgets of the various organizations.

The organizations to be financed in this manner and the amounts decided upon are as follows:

The Mirage .....$5,000
Y. M. C. A. .... 800
Y. W. C. A. .... 1,000
W. S. G. A. .... 800
W. A. A. .... 600
Student Council .... 400
World Friendship Fund .... 400
Band ..... 350
Surplus ..... 150

The cost of The Mirage will be complete for every student, except that they will be responsible for furnishing one print for each individual picture. Special prints will also be extra. All class and special assessments will be eliminated and each student will receive a copy of the book.

Special drives, staged to support the above-named organizations, will be discontinued as the amount budgeted will be the entire income for them.

Mirage To Stage Beauty Contest Here Next Week

SIX MOST BEAUTIFUL COEDS TO BE SELECTED BY VOTE OF MALE STUDENTS.

The DePauw Beauty Contest, held each year under the auspices of The Mirage, will be conducted on Monday and Tuesday of next week, January 10 and 11, at which time the men students will have an opportunity to select the six most beautiful coeds from the thirty-two girls who have been entered. Coeds, faculty, and townspeople will also have an opportunity to designate their choice, but only the vote of the men will be considered in the final count.

Voting will be by number and not by name. Each picture will have a number attached as means of identification and the elector will indicate his choice by placing a number on his ballot corresponding to the picture. Each person is entitled to vote for six of the entrants.

The contestants as entered by their respective groups are: Kappa Alpha Theta—Mary Jo Springer, Mary Louise Whitcomb, and Helen Moffett; Kappa Kappa Gamma—Jean Burke, Aileen Noblitt, and Helen Stokes; Alpha Chi Omega—Grace Riley and June Lightfoot; Alpha Phi—Mary

Cummings, Edith Funston, and Margaret Rohwedder; Alpha Omicron Pi—Mabel Carter and Margaret Bryan; Delta Delta Delta—Ella Mae Webster, Margaret Klinger, and Lucy Mae Roelle; Delta Zeta—Mary Rickard, Eloise Blackwell, and Esther Elkins; Phi Omega Pi—Mar Criss Ruth Shannon; Alpha Gamma Delta—Theresa Kaney, Beulah Collins, and Eunice Misner; Kappa Delta—Mable Batchellor and Elizabeth Clayberg; Mansfield Hall—Mary Louise Clemens, Mildred Peterson, and Esther Coffin; Rector Hall—Faith Ritz, Blythe Archobald, and Dorothy Klumpp.

In order to make this contest one of the best, Hillary G. Bailey has colored each picture and will have them on display at the shadow Art Studio tomorrow where the voting will take place.

Immediately following the contest the pictures will be removed in order to comply with the requests which have received to publish the pictures and place them on display throughout the state.

The final results of the contest will not be made public until the distribution of the Mirage in the latter part of May. Each of the six winners will have a full page picture in the book.

DOROTHY RICHARDS, '26, IS CHAIRMAN OF STUDENT CONFERENCE.

The DePauw Young Women's and Men's Christian Associations were represented by eleven students at the four day National Student Conference, held at Milwaukee last week. The conference was the first of its nature to be conducted under the direction of the National Council of Christian Associations, of which Dorothy Richards, prominent in the Y. W. C. A. on the local campus last year, is chairman. Over three thousand students, representing colleges and universities in every state in the Union and more than thirty five nations, were in attendance at the meeting.

The spirit of the conference was voiced by Dorothy Richards in her welcoming address, when she asserted that college students are unable, through resorting to the things which have been labeled "freedom," to stifle the urge, latent in every individual, to recognize God himself. The Chicago Tribune of Dec. 30 comments as follows:

"Some excitement was caused by the announcement that Dorothy Richards, Chairman of the Council of Christian Associations, who presided yesterday at the National Conference, approved of smoking by women. After reform leaders here issued statements denouncing her, she stated that she had formerly smoked but did so no longer.

"I do not regard smoking by women as immoral," she said, "but I gave it up for the sake of my example and because I thought it the better thing to do."

Miss Richards, now of the New York School of Social Work, was prominent at the conference as presiding chairman of many of the sessions.

The main theme of the conference was, "What resources has Jesus for Life in our World?" In this connection, the questions of imperialism, racial relations, and industrial situations were discussed and stands taken by the conference on each of these problems. Many prominent and very excellent speakers addressed the students on various aspects of these problems, among them being: G. A. Studdert-Kennedy, of London, England. Reinhold Niebuhr, of Detroit, Henry S. Coffin, President of Union Theological Seminary, Robert A. Milliken, prominent physicist of the California Institute of Technology, T. T. Lew, a Dean of Peking University, China, and Kirby Page, popular student speaker and authority on social and international questions.

The students from DePauw, who were sent as delegates to the conference by the campus Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., are: Claire Ferris, Ruth Thomson, Mary Louise Travis, Frances Eckardt, Helen Louise Cox, Carl Martini, Curtis Miller and Dick Murray.
